body without fear

a film by andy ogden
produced by deborah seeley

"Justice is to be able to control your mind and your body without fear."

- Kendall Allen

This mini-documentary focuses on the Passion Works program's exploration of reproductive freedom and the changing sexual climate on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. It exposes what students know and don't know about sex, which might surprise you.

Alternatively devastating and hopeful, this film features students, staff and faculty who are working to create a positive shift within the campus culture.

This film was made possible by a grant from Spiritual Youth for Reproductive Freedom, a program of the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice.
